

Crowne Plaza Denver Airport Convention Center Celebrates the Holidays by Giving Back

Aurora, CO: Last week the Crowne Plaza Denver Airport Convention Center Sales team volunteered for Operation Christmas Child to help spread holiday cheer in the community by providing holiday gifts to children throughout the world. Members of the Sales Team put together boxes, packed them with toys and shipped them to less fortunate children in more than 100 countries.

The Operation Christmas Child distribution center in Aurora, Colorado is just one of many centers throughout the United States. The Colorado location alone will provide 640,000 boxes this Christmas to children all over the world.

Operation Christmas Child, a project of Samaritan's Purse, is the world's largest Christmas outreach of its kind. Since 1993, Operation Christmas Child has delivered gift filled shoe-boxes to over 124 million children affected by war, poverty, natural disasters, and other crises in more than 150 countries and territories. The organization uses gifts to demonstrate God's love in a tangible way to children in need around the world.
